"Celebrating Creativity"

an exhibition of artwork from local schools at Nantwich Museum.

Tuesday 26 October - Saturday 30 October

The amazing, artistic talents of local school children will be displayed in a forthcoming exhibition, "Celebrating Creativity," at Nantwich Museum.

The exhibition celebrates the wonderful creativity of the young people who attend the Nantwich Educational Partnership of primary and high schools. The partnership describes itself as a 'family', having worked collectively over many years to improve the learning experience for children in the area.

Admission to the Museum and exhibition is free, and it is open 10.30 am - 4.30 pm Tuesday - Saturday.
